

9.3.1. Bulk Delivery/Invoice Documentation Regulatory Requirements

Standard

Does bulk delivery and/or invoice documentation meet regulatory requirements, with specific reference to the restricted animal feeding ban?

Refer to clause 2.10.

Purpose

To ensure operators have a checklist in place for the labelling of invoice documentation to feed clients.

Reason

Operators have a state regulatory requirement to meet for the labelling of invoice documentation on delivery.

What is Acceptable?

Bulk deliveries must be accompanied by documentation with the necessary RAM statements as per state legislation. Documentation may be attached or incorporated into the invoice or delivery docket and to be supplied to the feed client before or on delivery.

If your invoice follows delivery, then you must include the appropriate warnings on your delivery docket and ensure this is delivered when the feed is unloaded. Information to be supplied for bulk deliveries must meet the minimum labelling requirements as outlined in Fact Sheet 4.3.1.
